

HUDSON AREA LIBRARY

Collection Reproduction Policy

Hudson Area Library History Room Photograph and Document Reproduction Policy

1. Hudson Area Library staff with History Room oversight (Library Director, Reference Librarian, History Room Coordinator) must approve collection reproductions. Requests may be denied if the staff deems such copying will harm the original item(s) or violates U.S. copyright law.
2. Individuals and institutions must submit a Collection Reproduction Form before orders are processed.
3. Library staff will ordinarily do all copying but may approve and oversee requests by individuals and institutions to copy items with their personal phones or cameras. Use of personal phones or cameras is strictly forbidden without permission beforehand.
4. Adhering to copyright restrictions and publications rights in the use of reproductions is the responsibility of the individual and institutions receiving the reproductions from the library. They should refer to the Hudson Area Library Copyright Policy that is available at the library or online at <https://hudsonarealibrary.org/Policies/CopyrightPolicy.pdf> and all applicable U.S. copyright laws.
5. Reproductions are provided for the researcher's personal use and may not be loaned, sold, or given to any commercial agency, person, or organization; further duplication is not permitted.
6. By providing copies to individuals and institutions, the Hudson Area Library does not surrender its right to use the image or provide copies to others.
7. The Hudson Area Library reserves the right to limit file size of its reproduction of certain images, especially images it uses or will use to brand or fundraise.
8. If the Hudson Area Library is the rights holder, the Hudson Area Library may agree that an image may be reproduced for commercial purposes and the library may negotiate for a portion of the proceeds.
9. Any negatives or digital copies created through the reproduction requests will be retained by the Hudson Area Library.
10. Images should be cited as follows: "[Name of Particular Collection, if applicable], Hudson Area Library History Room, Hudson, NY".
11. Fees associated with reproduction are as follows:
